

Life Insurance Policy Gift

Name Women for Women International as a Beneficiary of Your Life Insurance Policy

You can help empower women across the world by designating Women for Women International as a beneficiary of your life insurance policy. It's a simple way to make a significant difference for the future of countless lives.

How it Works

You can name Women for Women International as the primary beneficiary of your life insurance policy or a contingent beneficiary should your other beneficiaries not survive you.

Simple Steps:

1. Provide now for a future gift by naming Women for Women International as the beneficiary of a policy insuring your life.
2. After your lifetime, the benefits pass to Women for Women International free of federal estate tax and are applied based on your wishes.
